Having a Mary Heart in a Martha World Retreat

for Christian Educators, Sunday School Teachers, Youth Workers & Adult Formation Leaders

Retreat Leader

The Rev. Robyn Szoke is Associate Rector at St. John's Episcopal Church in Carlyle, PA where she has oversight for life long Christian formation and pastoral ministries. Prior to her ministry at St. John's, Robyn served on staff in the Diocese of Pennsylvania and the National Church in the field of Life Long Christian formation and education. A Christian educator for over 30 years, Robyn has experience working with children, youth and adults on a parish, diocesan and national level. She has certification in Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, Godly Play, and Journey to Adulthood. Her publications include: Educational Inquiry, Treasure Magazine - Jerusalem, UN Rights of the Child, and Mexico, and the Will Our Faith Have Children video and study guide.

Kirby House is located in the mountains east of the Scranton - Wilkes-Barre area in Glen Summit and serves as a conference center for the Diocese. The buildings, walkways, and mountain-top location make it a favorite place for retreats.

Having a Mary Heart In a Martha World

Luke 10:40-42

Finding intimacy with God in the busyness of life is a challenge. The life of women today isn't really all that different from that of Mary and Martha in the New Testament. Having a Mary Heart in a Martha World will focus on a variety of "M & Ms" to bring the Mary and Martha inside each of us back into alignment. Explore: Movement, Music, Meditation, Manicures, and Massage - along with a healthy supply of chocolate M & Ms and renew your giftedness and centeredness as a Christian educator. Come join us and pamper your "Martha" to nurture the "Mary" in you.
