Live God's love: tell what you have seen and heard

Youth from our diocesan community (Milford, New Milford, Bethlehem, Easton, Reading, Stroudsburg and Mt. Pocono) have begun to prepare for their July mission trip to New Orleans where they will assist in Hurricane Katrina rebuilding efforts.

See "DioBeth Youth Mission Team," page A8.

Burnout: not from hard work

Alone in human history, our Lord Jesus was both priest and victim. The rest of us must decide which to be, and that decision must be made many times. Bishop Paul, A2

We will, with God's help

Diocesan Council has approved our New Hope Capital Campaign. It is an honor and a privilege to serve as the campaign chair. To be able to make a significant impact on thousands of lives is also a huge responsibility for all of us. Charlie Barebo, A3

Why should I give to the church, especially after I'm dead?

We decided some ten years ago, slowly but surely, with the help of the Holy Spirit, to refurbish our building. We did this because we felt a responsibility to past and future generations. Maureen Hipple, A5
