

*Episcopal Church
Women's Prayer*

Almighty God, we pray that You will bless our work in mission and ministry in the world. We give thanks for the gifts of joy and wonder to be found in Your works. Make us so thankful for the power of Your love, given through Your Son, Jesus, that we may pray, labor, and give liberally to make known that love throughout the world.

We are women and girls of all ages and ethnic backgrounds, who offer You our ministries at home, in the workplace, community, and school. Bless us that our lives may shine forth the joy and wonder we share in Your Name. AMEN.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN AT KIRBY HOUSE

Episcopal Church Women

2006 Annual Spring Meeting at Kirby House

May 10, 2006

“Recovering from Bible Deficiency Anemia”

Presented by:
The Rev. Canon Charles Cesaretti

Charles A. Cesaretti is a native of New Jersey. He was graduated from Rutgers University, New Brunswick, NJ and attended the Episcopal Church's seminary in Philadelphia. He was ordained priest in 1965 and served parishes in New Jersey before post-graduate studies at Princeton Theological Seminary, where he earned a master's degree in theology. He has a certificate in Pastoral Counseling from Seton Hall University, South Orange, NJ. Father Cesaretti is currently interim rector of St. Paul's, Montrose.

In 1976 he was invited to the national staff of the Episcopal Church, serving in positions of domestic and international policy and diplomacy. His appointment as assistant to the Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church as envoy to oversee the international church and governmental relations of the Episcopal Church took him to assignments in Central America, East and South Africa, the Middle East, and Northern Ireland. He was seconded to the staff of the Archbishop of Canterbury to assist with release of religious hostages in the Lebanon and the Middle East.

In 1990 Fr. Cesaretti became the assistant to the Rector of Trinity Church, Wall Street, where he was engaged in the research and development of parish outreach and mission.

He is a fellow of the College of Preachers, a member of the American Association of Sex Educators, Counselors, and Therapists. He was adjunct faculty at Widener University, Philadelphia. Cesaretti is chair of the board of the Kirkrigde Study and Retreat Center in Stroudsburg. He is the editor of four books, and author of numerous articles and reviews.
