

The Cathedral's Easter Offering

Sudan

Will fund a well and pumping station for the community at Romogi in Sudan the new site of the diocesan cathedral, center, and college.

The well will also serve the local community.

Many people have to walk miles to draw water and then carry the water back to their homes

May God bless our efforts to support the people of Kajo Keji and the mission of the church in that country.