HYMNS

*Hymns marked (*) are suitable for use the epistle and gospel*

All Saints' Sunday

11/01/09

The Prayer Book provides for All Saints' Day to be celebrated on the Sunday nearest to November 1st. In 2009, the propers for All Saints should be used in place of those for Proper 26. The Prayer Book also suggests that this is one of the occasions for the administration of Holy Baptism, or if there are no baptisms, the Renewal of Baptismal Vows (p. 292), thus dramatizing an aspect of the meaning of all baptisms as incorporation into the Body of Christ and the Communion of Saints - a fellowship of the Holy Spirit encompassing the living and the dead. The following may replace the Easter Vigil introductory address to this rite:

Dear People of God: In Baptism, God has adopted us as children and made us members of Christ's Body and inheritors of the Kingdom with the saints in light; let us now renew the solemn promises and vows of Holy Baptism by which God has made us a holy people.

- 279* For thy dear saints, O Lord
- 286* Who are these like stars appearing?
- 287 For all the saints
- 288 Praise to God immortal praise
- 292 I sing a song of the saints of God
- 526* Let saints on earth in concert sing
- 545 Lo! what a cloud of witnesses
- 558 Faith of our fathers! living still
- 618 Ye watchers and ye holy ones
- 625 Ye holy angels bright

The primary theme of ADVENT is "expectation." Blue, the English royal color is increasingly used as the color of Advent to distinguish the mood of this season from that of Lent. The Gloria is omitted, to be resumed with greater joy on Christmas Eve. Eucharistic Prayer B is especially appropriate because of its emphasis on the incarnation. During the Advent season the Penitential Order or the Great Litany may be used to begin the liturgy. The Great Litany (S-67) ends with the Kyrie, and the Liturgy of the Word begins with the salutation of the Collect of the Day. The Prayers of the People following the Creed may be omitted when the Litany is used. When an Advent wreath is used in the church, no special prayers or ceremonial elaboration beyond what is described on 143 of the Prayer Book is desirable. At morning services the appropriate number of candles is lighted with the altar candles before the service begins. (See BOS, page 30.)

20 Sing the wondrous love of Jesus

Having prepared faithfully during the season of Advent, we should celebrate with joy the full twelve days of CHRISTMAS. Christmas hymns and carols should be sung throughout this period. The Gloria is resumed, and Eucharistic Prayer B with its emphasis on incarnation should be used throughout the Christmas and Epiphany seasons. The Book of Occasional Services provides two forms for a seasonal blessing on page 21, and also suggests an outline for a Vigil for Christmas Eve as a preface to the midnight Eucharist. On pages 34 and 35 there are prayers for a station at a Christmas crèche. Also provided is a form for a Christmas Festival of Lessons and Music which may be celebrated during the twelve days of Christmas.

791 Peace before us, peace behind us

LEVAS II

78 Blessed be the name!

If it is not possible to have baptisms on this day, provisions should be made for the Renewal of Baptismal Vows during the liturgy. After the sermon the Celebrant and servers should go in procession to the font as a focal point for the renewal (see hymn list for suggested hymns). At the font the Celebrant leads in the renewal of vows as on page 292ff. The following may replace the Easter Vigil introductory address to this rite:

Dear People of God: through our Baptism into the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, we have been reborn into new life in him. I call upon you, therefore, as we celebrate his Baptism, to renew the solemn promises and vows of Holy Baptism, by which we once renounced Satan and all his works, and promised to serve God faithfully in his holy Catholic Church.

If desired, water may be poured into the font and blessed using the form on page 306-307. The people may be sprinkled with water as a further reminder of their baptism, using an evergreen branch.

Note: Holy Baptism may be celebrated at other times during the Epiphany Season, but once Lent begins, all baptisms should be saved for the Great Vigil of Easter.
