THE DAY OF PENTECOST

06/12/11

If there are no baptisms on this day, the Renewal of Baptismal Vows (BCP, p. 292) may take the place of the Nicene Creed at the Eucharist. The following introduction may be used:

Dear People of God: on this Day of Pentecost, the Church calls us to celebrate the gifts of the Spirit, and as a sign of our Baptism in the Spirit calls on us to renew our Baptismal Vows and reaffirm once again the promises which bind us to Christ and to each other.....

225*	Hail thee, festival day!
228	Holy Spirit, font of light
229	Spirit of mercy, truth and love

ALL SAINTS

The Prayer Book provides for All Saints' Day to be observed on the Sunday following November 1st. In 2011, the propers for All Saints Day may be used in place of those for Proper 27. The Prayer Book also suggests that this is one of the occasions for the administration of Holy Baptism, or if there are no baptisms, the Renewal of Baptismal Vows (p. 292), thus dramatizing an aspect of the meaning of all baptisms as incorporation into the Body of Christ and the Communion of Saints - a fellowship of the Holy Spirit encompassing the living and the dead.

The following introduction may be used:

In Holy Baptism, dear friends, we have become part of the Body of Christ, that great fellowship of believers in all times and places. As members of Christ's body we are inheritors of God's kingdom with the saints in light. (Joining with those who are committing themselves to Christ) let us now renew the vows of our baptism by which God has made us a holy people.

ALL SAINTS' DAY
